AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OF IRAQ
SULAIMANI

The American University of Iraq, Sulaimani is a non-profit institution for public benefit founded in 2007 to provide a student-centered American-style education that embodies the philosophy, standards, and teaching practices of the American higher education model. AUIS admits all qualified students regardless of social, ethnic, or religious background. Students are admitted based on a record of past academic performance and potential for success, including capacity to engage in self-directed learning and demonstrated high levels of critical thinking. At AUIS, young Iraqis do more than co-exist – they learn lasting values of respect for the individual and a spirit of free inquiry, and they thrive in a culture of achievement and accountability. Today nearly 1,400 students from all parts of Iraq study at AUIS. The university currently offers six academic programs that lead to a bachelor’s degree, as well as a Master of Business Administration (MBA).
